Cole,

This is confirmed.

Additionally, Google has added to the source code review computer: (1) a reproduction of the YouTube Remote source code from July 12, 2011 that was previously made available for inspection, and (2) a November 11, 2010 YouTube Remote source code capture. This code preserves the last modified dates and is now available for inspection.

Thanks,
Nima

Nima,

Sonos plans to inspect Google's source code on 3/29 in Quinn's LA offices. Attending will be Kevin Almeroth.

Best,

Cole B. Richter
